WHY DO YOU WANT TO SERVE?

ELIGIBILITY AND CONFLICT OF INTEREST DISCLOSURE

In order to ensure that Blanco County Appraisal Review Board members are impartial, the law puts a number of limits on who can serve as members. Your answers to these questions will determine whether you are legally eligible to serve on the Blanco County Appraisal Review Board.

For the purposes of these questions:

- A "local government" is a governmental entity that levies property taxes, such as a county, city, school district, junior college, hospital district, municipal utility district, or other special district.
- A "Governing Body" means the group of officials that oversee a local government, such as a city council, county commissioners' court, school board of trustees, or board of directors.
- "Officer" means holding an elected or appointed office for a local government, such as a governing body member, chief executive officer, judge, tax assessor, business manager, superintendent, etc., and includes an election judge, alternation election judge, and election clerk who serve in conducting a general election.
- "Part-time employee" includes a substitute teacher.
- "Contract" means an agreement of any sort.
- "Substantial interest" means combined ownership by you and your spouse of at least 10% of the voting stock or shares of a business entity, or that you or your spouse is a partner, limited partner, or officer of the business entity.
